THE MARKETPLACE WHERE EVERYONE WINS

Real Estate Investors | First Look Advantage
Gets a 2–4 hour first-look window on every off-market deal posted in their market, evaluates properties with data-driven tools, and closes deals through a continuous pipeline of agent and wholesaler relationships within the USale.com network — without cold outreach, marketing costs, or competition from the broader marketplace.

Real Estate Brokers | Recruit. Retain. Earn.

Give your agents a free, branded deal-flow tool that monetizes sellers who refuse to list, attracts investor-active recruits no competing broker can match, and generates override income for you on every deal your agents close — all with zero fees, zero overhead, and zero disruption to how you run your brokerage.

Real Estate Agents | List-Free Income
Earn referral fees on sellers who won't sign a listing agreement, build a verified buyer network that pays at close, and post coming-soon deals directly to hundreds of credentialed investors — all through a free, branded marketplace that does the matching, notifications, and fee management automatically.

Strategic Partners (Escrow / Title / Lending) | First To Know
Gets notified the moment a deal is posted or an offer is accepted, steps into the transaction flow before competitors even know it exists, and builds recurring relationships with the most active investors and agents in their market — at zero cost, in exchange only for co-marketing to their existing network.

How does USale.com make money?
We earn from our investor partners who leverage our technology, not from the transactions. No catch. No strings. Just strong partnerships built on trust.

USALE.COM BROKER BENEFITS

Recruit Better

Walk into every recruiting conversation armed with proprietary data showing exactly which agents in your market are actively doing investor deals. Offer something no competing broker can — invitation-only access to the most active off-market investor marketplace in your city. That's not a pitch. That's a door no one else can open.

Retain Longer

Agents who are generating deal flow through your brokerage don't leave. When your agents have access to a continuous pipeline of investor buyers, verified off-market deals, and sourcing commissions up to 2.5%, your brokerage becomes the infrastructure their business runs on. You don't lose them to the next shiny offer.

Earn More

Three income channels — agent production GCI, override income on wholesale deals your agents close, first right of refusal on every deal your agents post, and operator-level deal flow from the entire network. You're not just running a brokerage anymore. You're running a deal machine.

Compete Differently

USale is invitation-only. That means access flows through you. You become the door for every investor-active agent in your market — and every agent who walks through that door is credited to your brokerage. No other broker in your market can make that offer.

Zero Cost. Zero Risk.

No subscriptions. No technology fees. No changes to how you run your business. You add a second door to your recruiting pitch, a new income layer to your P&L, and a retention tool that compounds over time — all without spending a dollar.

THREE INCOME CHANNELS

#1 — Agent Production (More GCI)

Every deal an agent closes through USale.com runs through your brokerage split. More productive agents stay longer and recruit organically. Zero additional overhead.

#2 — Your Own Flip Portfolio

First right of refusal on deals your agents post — before they hit any other buyer. Your personal deal acquisition engine, powered by agents already working for you.

#3 — Network Deal Flow

As a USale.com user, deals flow to you from the entire network — not just your agents. Every agent in your market can route deals your way. You build deal flow from a network you don't manage.

RECRUITING SCRIPTS LEVERAGING USALE.COM DATA

USale.com has a proprietary dataset with real-time access to every agent, broker, and active investor nationwide, as well as MLS and tax data for 16 states. You walk into every recruiting conversation knowing exactly what that agent is already doing.

DATA-DRIVEN RECRUITING SCRIPT:

Before we talk about your move, I want to show you something. I know you've been doing investor deals — I can see your entire transaction history. I know what you're running into: sellers who won't list, investors who pass, buyers you can't find fast enough.

[That's exactly what USale.com solves!]

I have access to a free, invitation-only marketplace built with companies like Fidelity National Title and Kiavi that will help solve your sales challenges. Your deals get visibility with verified investment buyers. You earn sourcing commissions. You double-end deals. Inside a brokerage that has the infrastructure to support that whole business. No other broker in this market is offering you this.

THE CALLBACK THAT CLOSES - A SCRIPT FOR WHEN AN AGENT CLOSES A DEAL:

OPENING "Hey [Name], this is [Your Name] with [Brokerage]. I was looking at some recent closings in the market and saw you just closed [Address or Area]. Nice work — that's a solid deal."

THE PIVOT "I'm actually reaching out because we're building something here that I think would be really valuable for you. We have access to an invitation-only marketplace called USale.com — it's completely free — where investor-friendly agents are connecting with verified cash buyers and closing off-market deals. No listing agreements required, no fees, just sourcing commissions up to 2.5% on deals that would have otherwise walked out the door."

THE HOOK "The agents here are using it to monetize sellers who won't sign a listing agreement — which, as you know, happens all the time. Instead of losing that seller, you post the property, verified investors compete, and you get paid at close."

THE ASK "I'd love to show you how it works — it's a 15-minute walkthrough, nothing to buy, nothing to sign. Can we find time this week?"

IF THEY PUSH BACK "I get it — you're busy and you've probably heard a lot of pitches. This one's different because there's nothing to buy. I'm just offering you access. Worst case, you have a new tool in your belt. Best case, it changes how you do business."

A SCRIPT TARGETING AGENTS DOING INVESTOR OR OFF-MARKET DEALS:

OPENING "Hey [Name], this is [Your Name] with [Brokerage]. I've been watching your activity in the market and I can see you're doing investor deals — off-market, cash buyers, that kind of business. I'm not calling to pitch you on switching brokerages right now. I'm calling because I have something that's going to make what you're already doing a lot more profitable."

THE HOOK "We have access to an invitation-only marketplace called USale. It's completely free. It's built specifically for agents like you — the ones working with investors, finding deals that never hit the MLS, dealing with sellers who won't sign a listing agreement. Instead of scrambling to find the right buyer for every deal, you post it, and verified investors compete for it. You earn a sourcing commission up to 2.5% at close. No listing agreement required."

THE DIFFERENTIATOR "What makes this different is the buyers are verified — we're talking entity-verified investors with documented proof of funds and a track record. No tire kickers. No wasted time. The best buyers rise to the top automatically."

THE PLANT "And honestly — the agents who get access to this early are going to have a serious edge over everyone else working investor deals in this market. It's invitation-only, so not everyone gets in."

THE ASK "I'd love to walk you through it — 15 minutes, no obligation, nothing to sign or buy. When's a good time this week?"

THE CALLBACK CLOSE Use this if they've already closed a deal on USale.com or shown interest previously: "Hey [Name] — I saw you just closed one through the marketplace. That's exactly what this was built for. How's it going? [Listen.] You know, I've been keeping an eye on your activity and I think you'd be doing even more of this business inside [Brokerage]. We have the infrastructure to support the whole investor side of your business. When does your current agreement expire?"
